

2015 Thunderbird Northwest Regional Regatta

Notice of Race

The regatta will be governed by the Racing Rules of Sailing, as prescribed by the U.S. Sailing Association, Thunderbird class rules and the Regatta sailing instructions.

Port Townsend Fleet 33_ is the organizing authority and Joe Daubenberger is the Regatta Chairman.

The event is open to all Thunderbird class yachts possessing a current measurement certificate. Skippers must be international Thunderbird Class Association members with 2015 dues paid.

Racing will take place September 5 & 6 on the waters of Port Townsend Bay, which is along the city front. The race course location may be changed at the discretion of the race committee.

Entry Fee: Cost for the regatta is $50.00 per boat if received by August 20th. Cost is $65.00 for registrations received on or after August 20, 2015.

Moorage is available at the Point Hudson Marina. 15 slips have been reserved for Thunderbirds. To reserve one of these spots you must call Point Hudson Marina at 360-385-2828. Tell them you are with the Thunderbird fleet. Other moorage is available in the Port Townsend area. Boats may need to raft.
